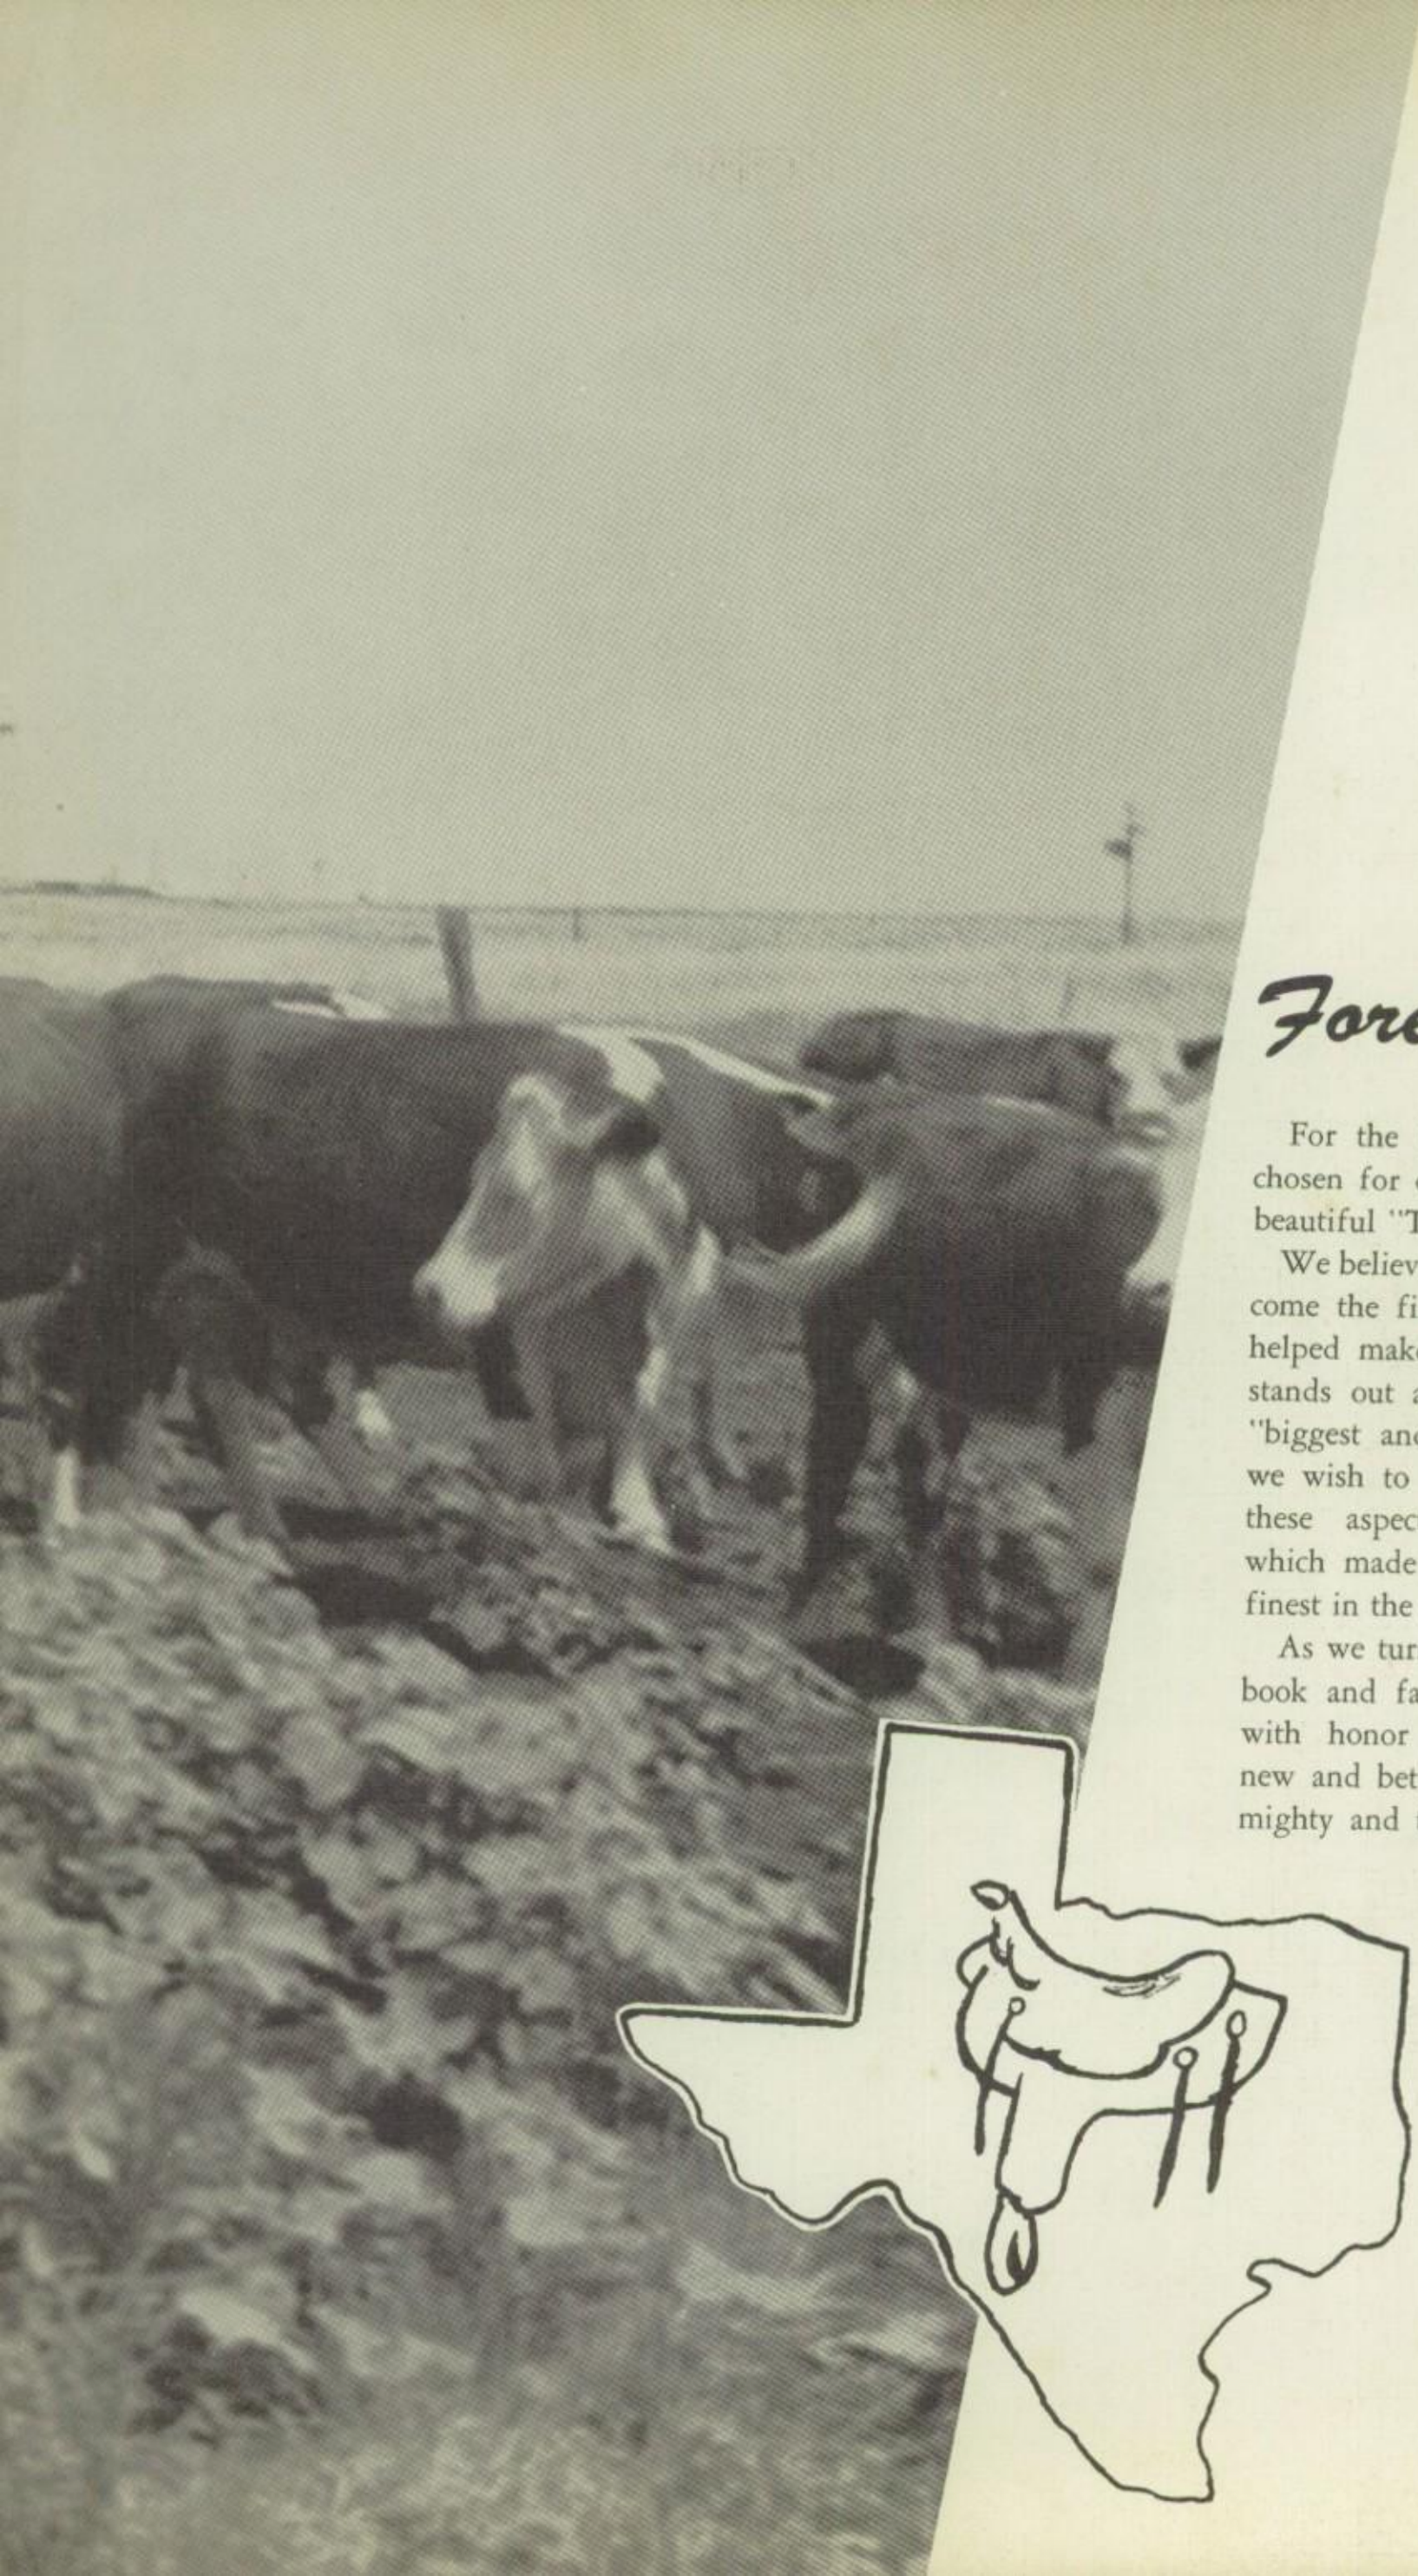
Sherman High School

Sherman, Texas



Foreword

For the 1959 Athenian we have chosen for our theme, the great and beautiful "Texas."

We believe that from our state have come the finest citizens which have helped make our nation one which stands out among all others as the "biggest and best." By our choice we wish to pay tribute to some of these aspects of our community which made our school one of the finest in the state.

As we turn the pages of this yearbook and face the unknown future with honor and determination of new and better goals, we salute the mighty and the wonderful "Texas."

Board of Education

You are the people who came from every walk of life to chart the entire course of the Sherman School System. For your unselfish devotion and hours of work, we wish to express our sincere appreciation.

Superintendent's Message

Students of Sherman High School:

Today offers you a new challenge in your battle against the forces of ignorance, prejudice, and intolerance. The truly educated man in this era has overcome such threats to man's peace and happiness through research, study, and continuous effort. Each of you should strive for a total development of your intellectual, social, and spiritual qualities. In this way, you can make your own contribution in the universal fight against ignorance. Set high standards for yourselves. Allow nothing to stand in your way in your efforts to reach your goals. Whether it be academic study or a game on the athletic field, your aim should be to give your best to the project at hand. The demands of this age are calling for new goals, higher standards, and creative effort. May your school and the life it creates be dedicated to the enrichment of all your lives. May your life in Sherman High School be the beginning of a new understanding of your individual importance in overcoming the forces of ignorance, prejudice, and intolerance.

School Song

SHERMAN HIGH

Hail, all hail to Sherman High!
Fight, ye Bearcats! Fight, ye
Bearcats! Fight!
Loyal to maroon and white,
Till the day we die.
Through the years we'll sing your praise,
Ever to you be true,
Win or Lose we'll always stand beside you,
Dear Old Sherman High.

Bryant School

Principal: Mr. R. H. Jennings
Teachers: Seven
Enrollment: 170

Every child is entitled to an education to the limit of his capacity. The school's program provides for each of its pupils, according to his ability or environment, the opportunity to develope, and achieve to his capacity mentally, physically, socially, morally and spiritually.

A Program Is Ava

Each year a pre-school clinic is held, at which time parents bring their children to school for a visit. These children meet the teachers, tour the building so that they will not be total strangers when they come to school in the fall. Parents are given a handbook titled "And Now To School." This handbook is prepared especially for the parents of these children. In this way a working relationship is established between the home and school.

Child Development School

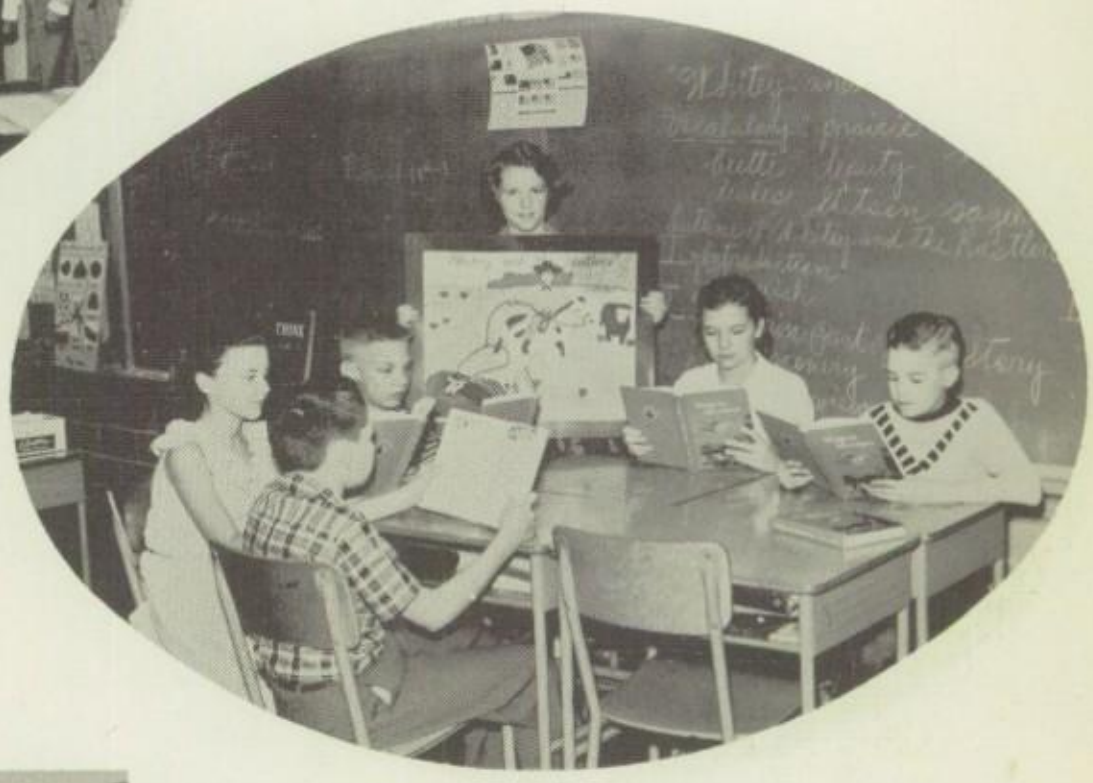
Teachers: Seven (Three of these are speech therapists)
Enrollment: 235 (Of this number 200 are students for speech defects)

ble for All Children

Moral and spiritual values are taught daily in the elementary schools. It is taught in a specific way such as saying grace before going to the cafeteria, the pledge to the flag daily, learning the 23rd Psalm as a beautiful passage from the Bible. The children are taught fair play, tolerance, consideration for others; reinforcing precepts taught by the home.

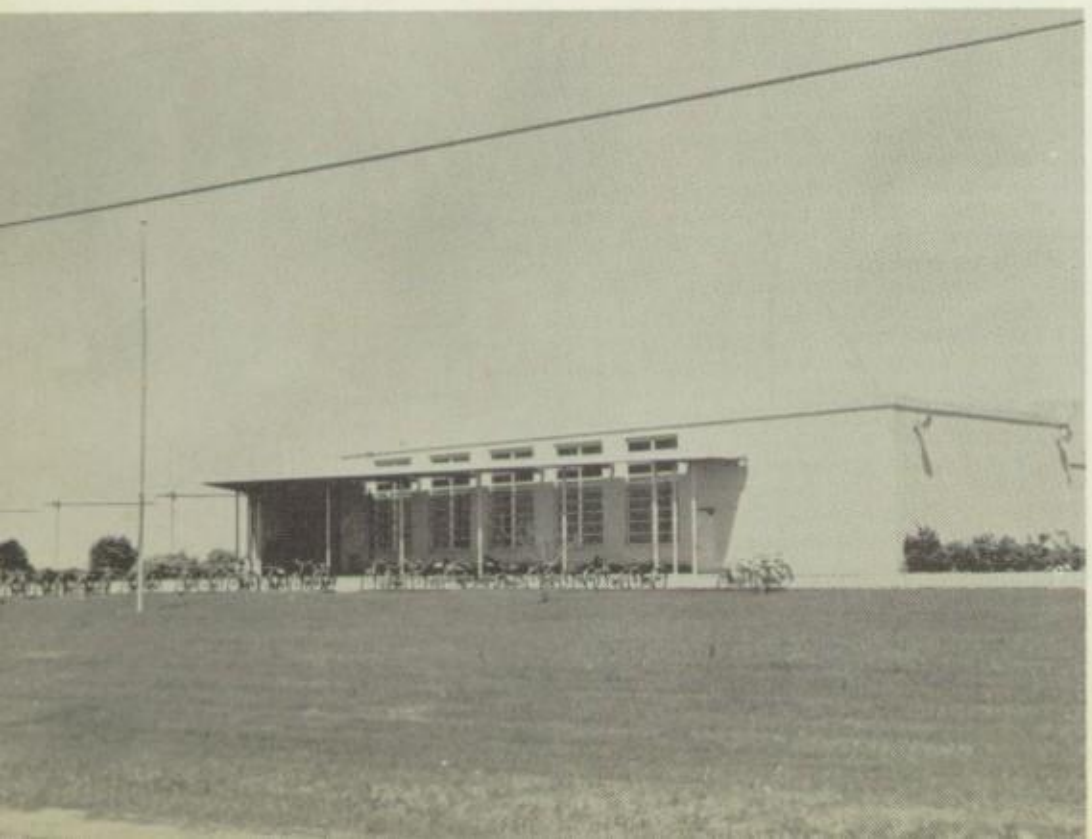
Fred Douglass School

Principal: Mr. P. A. Neblett
Teachers: Twenty-three
Enrollment: 600



Mary Crutchfield School

Principal: Mr. Coleman Baker
Teachers: Twelve
Enrollment: 295



After a child has learned basic skills in reading he developes these skills in upper elementary grades. He learns there are many kinds of reading: reading for pleasure, for information, for growth in study skills, and for literary appreciation. Through his reading he meets many different people and goes to many different places and gains a broader knowledge of the world in which he lives.

Lee School

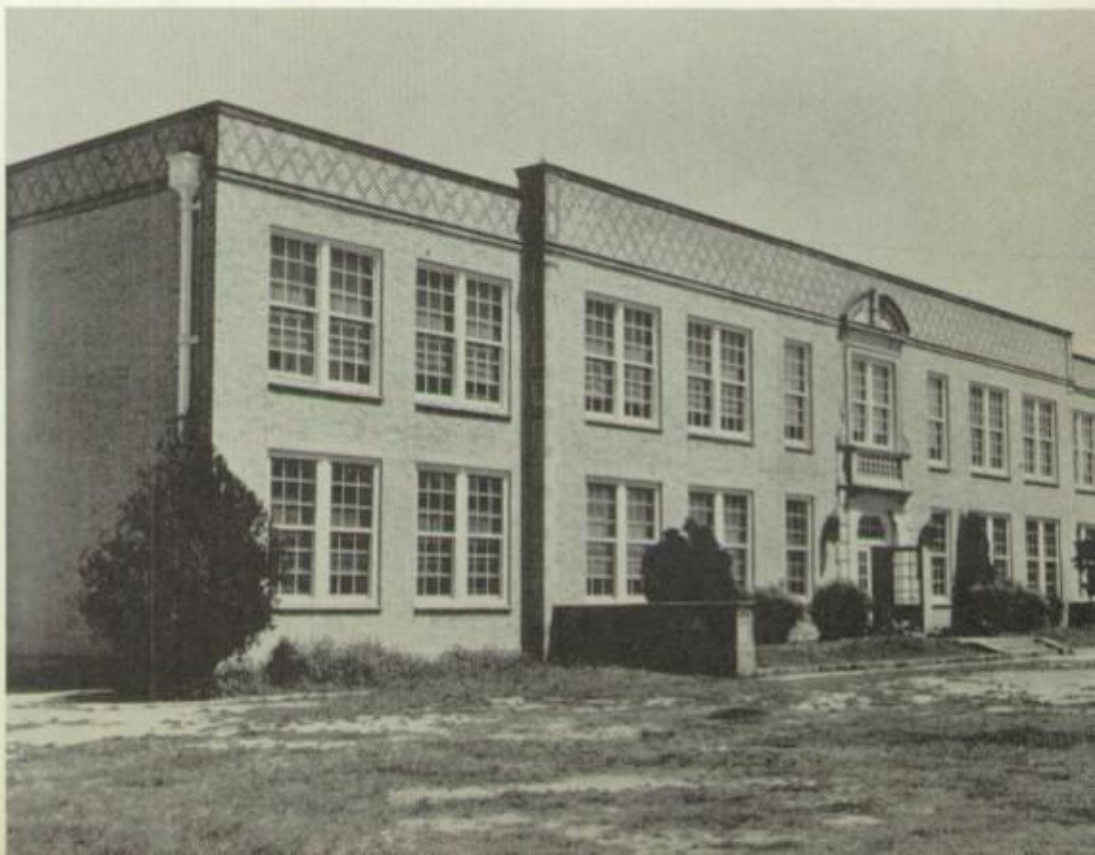
Principal: Mr. R. H. Jennings
Teachers: Seven
Enrollment: 180

Emphasis Is Placed

Children in the primary grades do manuscript writing and are encouraged to use it throughout their school years. At third grade level cursive writing is taught. To be able to write a clear legible hand, and to be able to put one's thoughts in writing is an integral part of the elementary school program.

Washington School

Principal: Mr. Tony Fillman
Teachers: Eighteen
Enrollment: 450



Social studies includes history and geography in the elementary grades. We say that events (history) must happen in a place (geography). As the child grows so does his horizon. Social studies is a developmental spiraling program beginning at home and spiraling outward until the child has studied Texas, United States, and the world.

...n the Three R's

Beginning arithmetic is more visual than abstract. As the children grow, two groups of four pegs become 2 x 4 and is meaningful to a child. "How many things do you see? If two are taken away, how many are left?" Gradually the four fundamental processes are introduced. As pupils grow in understanding, mathematics becomes more complex.

Crockett School

Principal: Mr. L. T. White
Teachers: Thirteen
Enrollment: 280

Jefferson School

Principal: Mr. Tom Kendrick
Teachers: Twenty
Enrollment: 470

Spelling is a fundamental tool of learning and is one that is stressed in our schools. The structure of a word is begun in the first grade. Seeing likenesses and differences in words; hearing what the word sounds like is important in beginning spelling. Spelling cannot be separated from reading and writing. Spelling is a part of the reading program and the communication arts: reading, speaking and writing.

Sherman Is Investing

Kate Wakefield School

Principal: Mr. W. C. Scott
Teachers: Nine
Enrollment: 225

Reading is a complex process. Accordingly, successful teachers no longer rely on one specific method of teaching such as look-say, the phonetic, or the experience method. The skilled teacher combines aspects from several systems for learning to read. These children are having a phonics lesson on beginning sounds.

Principal: Mr. John Hibbert
Teachers: Twenty
Enrollment: 450

Fairview School

At primary level science instruction is focused on the wonders of the world about the child; a butterfly in the chrysalis stage of development, a seed that begins to sprout, a polliwog as it swims in the water. The amount of teaching that is possible in relation to the interest of children at this level is an active force in the teaching of reading and science.

he Nation's Future

In the near future a new junior high school will be built to serve the northern section of our city. The site, pictured below, is on Loy Lake Road north of Sherman.

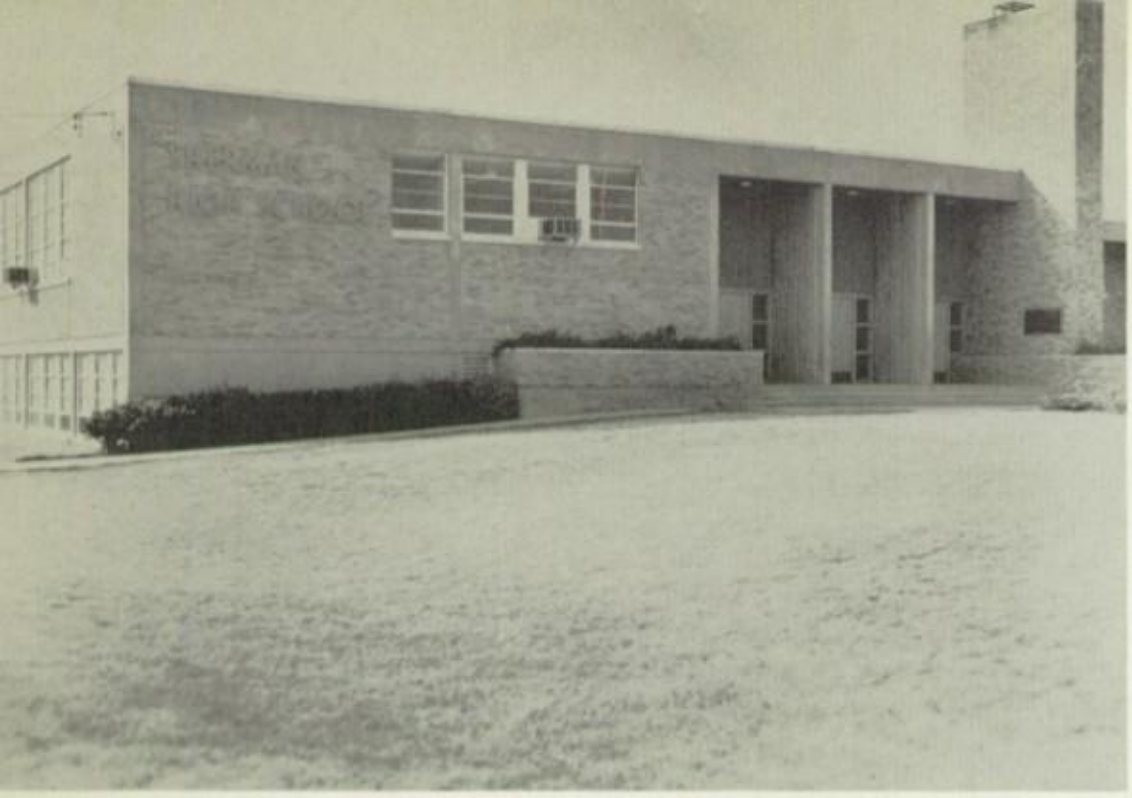
Piner Junior High School

Principal: Mr. Walter C. Carpentar
Teachers: Forty-nine
Enrollment: 1090

A well-rounded and coordinated program in all basic courses such as science, math, social studies, and language arts is provided in the Junior High as well as courses in art, music and industrial arts.

Good preparation for high school work is a vital part of the junior high program.



Students Prepare fo

Through accelerated and regular courses in science, math, English, and history, all students receive a well-rounded education for whatever they may choose after high school whether it be college or career.

Dedication

We dedicate this book to you:

Because you are a winning personality and a valuable teacher,

Because you give loyal support to the Bearcats and set an excellent example of true S.H.S. spirit,

Because you take interest in our lives and are always there when we need you,

Because you use your own time for our benefits and keep us laughing when the going is rough,

Because you will go down in the history of S.H.S. and will always have a place in our hearts.

To some of us you have just become acquainted while others of us will be leaving you to seek goals in which you have played a very important part. For the friend we love, and the gal with a heart as big as Texas itself, we dedicate the 1959 Athenian to:

MISS GENE LOOP

Principal's Message

Your Athenian is a treasure of memories put into pictures and meaningful phrases. Its meaning is lost during these first years of possession, but in later years as you look back at the pictures and read the many expressions of friendship and best wishes, you will recall many of the finest hours of your life and the friends that you met and knew so well during your years in Sherman High School.

Your Athenian can be a great source of inspiration. It will stimulate you to greater undertakings and remind you of the many responsibilities mankind has to his fellowman. I congratulate you on making 1959 a memorable one. Treasure this book. It is your year—for all your years ahead.

Class Sponsors

Class Sponsors play an important role in the school life. For them there is hard work and long hours with no reward except the satisfaction of a job well done. The tasks vary from planning and executing class socials and meetings, to counseling, to planning graduation ceremonies. Class advisors aid the sponsors in carrying out the class program.

MISS POLLY BROWN

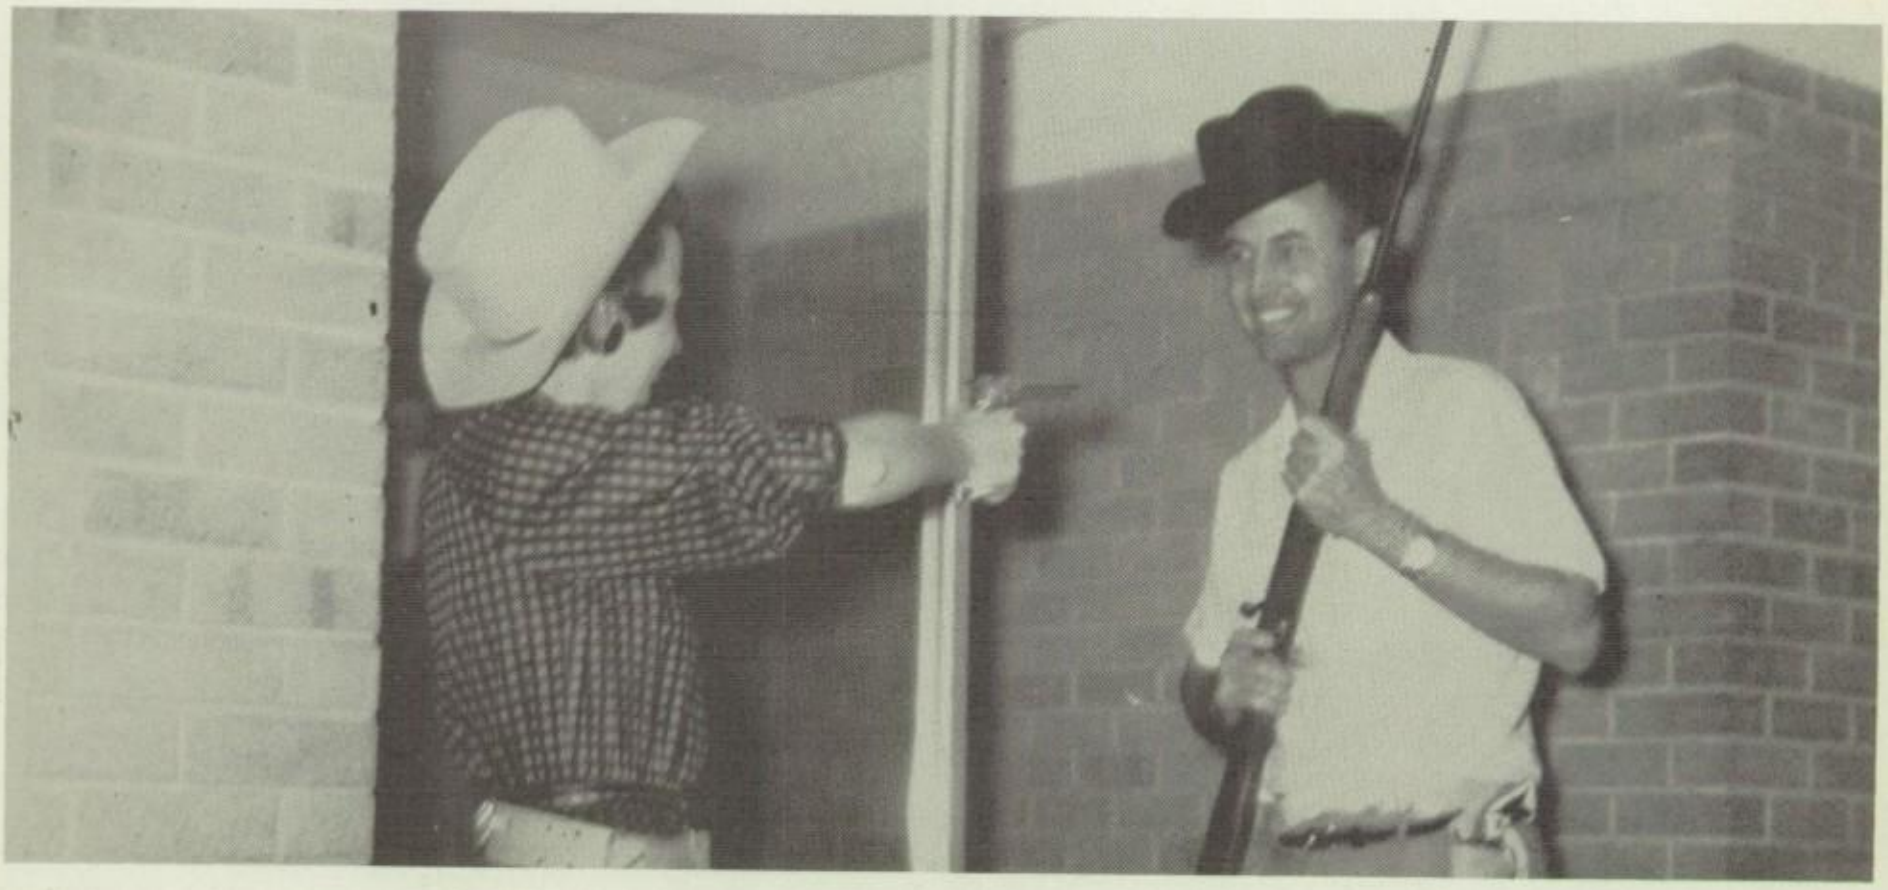
MR. HARVEY PATTERSON

These two have sponsored the Seniors since they were sophomores and have taken care of such important items as senior rings, invitations, and plans for graduation.



Senior sponsors take an active part in the activities of the school. Above, Miss Brown draws on Mr. Patterson during "Howdy Week."

JUNIOR CLASS SPONSORS

Junior Class Sponsors do all they can to prepare the students for the great experience of being "Seniors" as well as planning a busy, well-rounded year.

Sophomore Sponsors have a great task, too, for theirs is the task to orient students to SHS life and guide them in the right direction as well as sponsor activities of the class.

Our long awaited dreams came true when we became the Senior Class of 1959. The harvest of our labors and toils had been realized; the peak of our life had been reached. We were the loudest yellers in pep rallies, the hardest workers on school projects, and the biggest backers of our teams. We set a standard and pattern which will be respected by classes following us for many years. Our year has been filled with much happiness; the joy of getting Senior rings and "officially" becoming Seniors; the postponed thrill of using the Senior door; and many other wonderful things to make this year one we remember always.

The end of our long journey is now in sight. Shortly we will be there, the end of a decade in our time, the end of an era in our lives. As we stop and look back over the years, we see they hold many cherished memories for us that we shall not soon forget, but this year we remember most of all as the greatest for the Class of '59.

For us as Juniors this has been a year we will long remember. As the middle class we have been in the center of a multitude of activities. We feel that we have put forth our best efforts to make the 1958-59 school year a success and we are looking forward to the day we can say, "We are now the Seniors of '60."

Sophomores

Carol Everheart, Secretary; Hillary Hicks, Vice-President; Hugh Grady, Reporter; Larry Mayo, President.

With each new year comes new and more responsibilities but with each new responsibility that you take on omes the feeling of joy that can only be derived from accomplishment. And we, the 1958-59 Sophomore Class, eel that this year was no exception. We also feel that without the help of Juniors, Seniors, and faculty this year vould not have been nearly as successful for us. If at any time we became confused or stepped out of line there vere always the Seniors or Juniors to help or set us back on our path. We only hope that when we are given the hance we will become as good students as those Juniors and Seniors of 1958-59.

"DRESS RIGHT WEEK"

The student council sponsored a good-grooming and dress week, its objective being to make the student body more conscious of good-grooming and appropriate dress.

The week was begun with an assembly featuring skits on the theme of the week. The week included campus clean-up, election of best-groomed boy and girl of each class, speakers, and a dress-up day.

Participation from the student body was excellent and the week was given a high evaluation by the faculty and students.

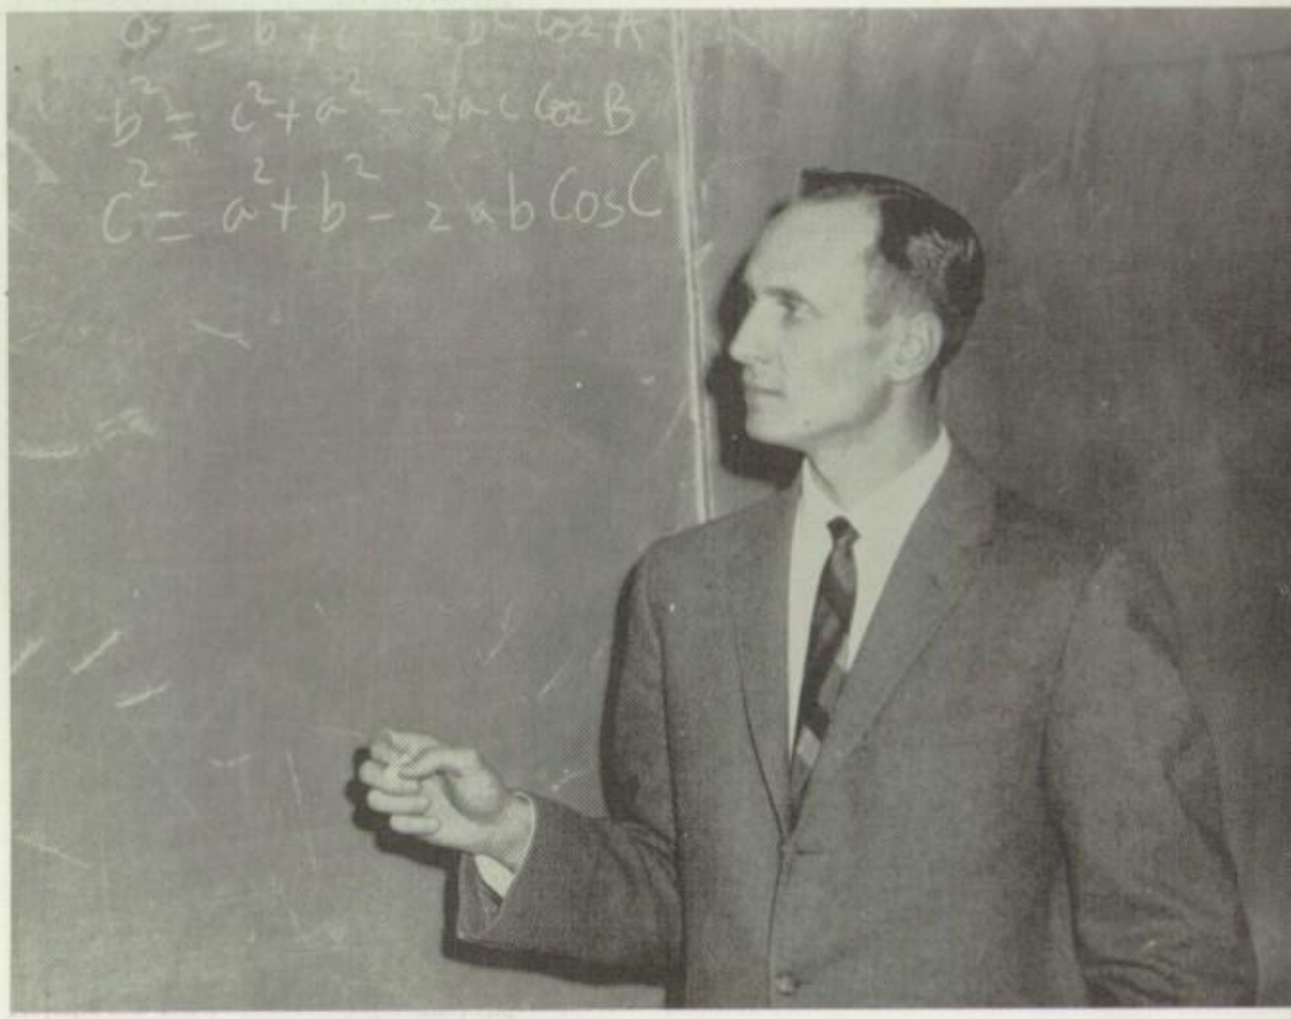
History

History and government present the student with the working tools and knowledge of the principles of American democracy. Audio-visual aids, records, current magazines, reports from administrative officials and participation in the classroom to demonstrate the importance of every individual in the application of citizenship and responsibilities of freedom.

Mr. Louis Hanky, a newcomer to our faculty, had just completed a tour with the Navy when he came to S.H.S. He received his B.A. at Southeastern State Teachers College. He is a talented math teacher who also contributes to the social life of our school and is known to all of us as "Mr. Sory's Shadow." Welcome to Sherman High School.



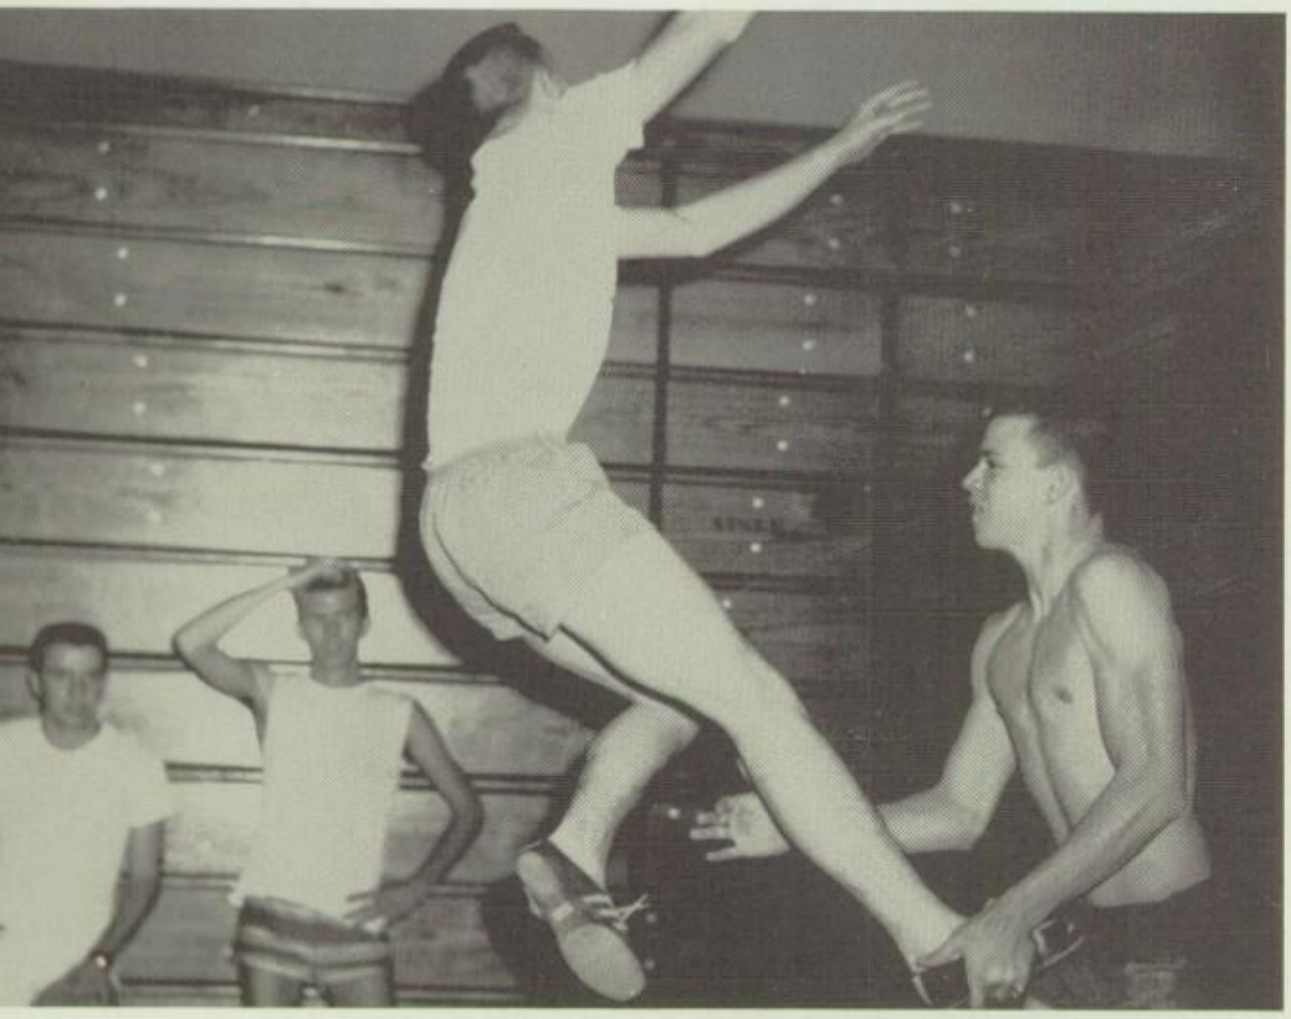
Math

Sherman High School offers a wide variety of subjects in mathematics to meet the needs and requirements for successful work in college or in whatever field one wishes to enter after graduation. Interest is created by participation in mathematics clubs, in Interscholastic League events, and in making projects. Accelerated classes are provided for those who desire a broader education.

English

In all English courses, there is a broad reading program including classics, both ancient and modern; there is a constant emphasis upon effective writing and speaking.

At each level in the accelerated classes, there is an enriched program in all areas of work with emphasis on experimental, creative, and critical writing.



Physical Education

The Physical and Health Education program at Sherman High School places a great deal of emphasis on taking care of the human body. Exercise also plays an important part in the program.

Competitive sports which are in season afford both boys and girls a chance to exercise and learn the fundamentals of playing well together.

Speech

Sherman High School offers two years of speech. Speech one and two are fundamental classes offering fundamentals, original speaking, interpretative speaking, debate, discussion, and a basic knowledge of special types of speaking. Speech three is a study of drama and dramatics. Speech four is a study of radio and television. Each student compiles, directs, and produces three radio shows.

Distributive Education

Distributive education is a vocational program especially designed to teach high school students the fundamentals of retail, wholesale, and service-selling businesses. The students work on a "cooperative basis" with participating businessmen—usually going to school in the morning and working in a real job during the afternoon.

Business

Business courses offer a wide variety of subjects to prepare students for the business and commercial world. Typing, Shorthand, Business Law, Bookkeeping, Business English, and Office Practice are offered. The department also tries to help the student in job placement and recommendation.

I.C.T.

ICT is designed for junior and senior students wishing to start an occupational trade training program while still in school. This includes such areas as carpentry, auto mechanics, electrical, laboratory technician, nursing, etc. A student who selects industrial cooperative training goes to school a half day and works downtown a half day.

Biology

Here Biology students prepare for a future lab day.

Physics

Physics is designed so as to give the student a working knowledge of the laws, theories, and principles encountered in the everyday life. It is offered only to seniors.

Shorthand

Here instructions are given to students as they practice taking dictation and learning the skills of the business world.

Shop

The satisfaction of creating things with the hands and, at the same time, learning a skill or trade are two of the primary purposes of the Industrial Arts Department.

Chemistry Science

Young scientists in S.H.S. get a very comprehensive survey of science at work in their chemistry, biology, and physics classes. The courses are geared to a high school level and students learn practical things which will stand them in good stead, whether they plan to continue in science field or go into some other suitable profession.

Future Farmers

Vocational Agriculture is a "trade" school for boys who are interested in farming, raising livestock, and general agricultural practices. They make field trips to farms and ranches in the county to study recognized practices. They also have home projects of livestock or crops and keep minute records of all business transactions pertaining to their project.

Fine Arts

ART

A general course in art is offered to sophomores, juniors, and seniors wishing to take the course. Art in everyday life such as industry and advertising is studied. The emphasis is on self-expression with use of tempera paints, clay, water colors, metal work and an appreciation of art gained through the study of art history. Here second year students are working on a unit in design.

BAND

Band work is divided into two parts. In the fall emphasis is placed on marching band and marching activities. Students attend all football games—at home and out of town, participate in parade activities such as the Christmas parade and college homecomings, and attend band day at the state fair. During the school year, members of the band will represent SHS on the average of sixty to sixty-five occasions. After marching season, emphasis is placed on concert work which culminates in a spring concert and the Interscholastic League Music Contest.

CHOIR

Choral activities at SHS center around two choirs, the A Cappella Choir and the Choral Club. Both organizations present programs for various service clubs in the city as well as serious music concerts at such seasons as Christmas and Easter. The choral club is more general in its approach to choral music. The A Cappella choir is more defined in its approach because of the unaccompanied music in its repertoire. Many ensembles are chosen from these groups to sing for special programs. Three years of choral music are offered at Sherman High School.

Homemaking

Three years of homemaking is offered in S.H.S. Homemaking covers a variety of things. It includes beauty care, gardening, home beautification, meal planning, clothes designing, and many other helpful ideas for the homemaker.

Latin

Students are usually fascinated when they learn how many of our English words stem from a Latin root. This knowledge is of great value in understanding our own language, as well as others.

Spanish

Foreign language courses try to teach the customs and mores of the different countries, as well as how to speak, read, and understand the language.

Mechanical drawing students at work.

These are the leaders of all activities. This is our Student Council.

PE offers the opportunity for recreational enjoyment.

Assemblies throughout the year are planned for education, inspiration, and entertainment.

HOMECOMING '59

The Homecoming Queen is chosen by the student body from six girls that are nominated by the Bearcat football team. The winner is kept secret until the half-time during the football game the night of Homecoming. She is then presented with a bouquet of roses and football by the team captain. This is the climax of the many homecoming activities which include: pep rallies, elections, former Bearcat teams being honored, half-time skits and programs, coronation of the Homecoming Queen, and a dance after the football game.

For a number of years SHS has had an outstanding baseball team. This year is no exception. This team, as in the past has shown ability, aggressiveness, and outstanding sportsmanship. Because of your wonderful team work and the many victories you have brought home, we wish to salute the Bearcat baseball team of 1959.

Student Council

Student Body Officers

President: John Dannel; Vice-President: Barbara Ray; Secretary: Margaret Welch.

Realizing the need for training in citizenship and government, the Student Council furnishes a wide field for preparation in leadership and service to the school and community. The Sherman High School Student Council has, through its many service projects, made a name for itself and has done many worthwhile things for the growth of the school. It has cooperated in the promotion of better school spirit, fostering of school relations, between other schools in this vicinity, and better student faculty relations.

Senior Dramatics

The Senior Dramatics consists of people who are interested in acting and improving their acting technique. Stage craft and make-up application are studied. The club's most important project is the annual Fall Production. These plays may range from serious drama to a gay, lighthearted comedy.

Because of its fine quality of membership and outstanding efforts in the field of drama, this club is held in high esteem by the student body and the community.

This year the Senior Dramatics Club was in charge of the Variety Show.

OFFICERS: Jimmy Blankenship, Paula Brewer, Virgil Graves, Carol Campbell, Joe Duval.

The Sherman High School Chapter of the National Honor Society was granted a charter and was organized on April 15, 1935. Membership in this organization is one of the highest honors obtainable in Sherman High School. Students of junior and senior classification who have a "B" average scholastically are rated by the faculty on leadership, school service, and character. Those students who rate in the highest ten percent of their class in combined rating of the four qualities mentioned above are elected to membership. Only seniors are elected in the fall semester; both juniors and seniors, in the spring semester.

"B" CHOIR

A Cappella Choir

The Sherman High School Choir has won many honors in our community, and regional districts. We have obtained the reputation of one of the finest in the state. We use our talents at the Musical Festival during the State Fair, at local clubs or organizations, at assemblies for our school and other activities in our community. This year the choir displayed its talents in cities of our state during a three-day tour.

A TEXAS SIZE THANK-YOU

To the many wonderful friends who help make it possible for us to publish a fine ATHENIAN each year, we are greatly indebted. Without their helpfulness and patronage, we could not have our treasured yearbook.

The loyal spirit of the people of Sherman has proven an inspiration to us at Sherman High School.

All of the many people involved have our hearty TEXAS Thank-You!

Dear Mrs. Tucker,

I have enjoyed being in your homemaking class this year. I wish you all the luck & happiness in the world.

Judy Vincent

Dear Mrs. Tucker:
I've sure enjoyed being in class. You're not only a good teacher; but also a wonderful person—
I'll always remember you.

Love,
Patsy Crist

Dear Mrs. Tucker.
I really have had lots of fun being in your Homemaking Class. I think you are a wonderful person. And have been the best Homemaking teacher I've had. And I just want you to know I'll always remember you.

Love always,
Jackie Bradshaw

Dear Mrs. Tucker.
I have enjoyed being in your homemaking classes all these years. Although we seniors are graduating now I'll always remember you. May good luck + fortune always be yours throughout your existence. You deserve the very best.

Good Days
Joanie Davis

Dear Mrs. Tucker
It's been a real pleasure being in your homeroom this year. Lots of luck -
Frances Comette

Dear Mrs Tucker,

I guess you know I have had fun in your home-room by the way I have cut up and talked. Really though its been fun and you are a real swell teacher. Hope to see you next year.

Your gum chewing Student,

Nancy Bailey

Dear Mrs. Tucker,

I have enjoyed being your student these last two years. There is no other course of study or teacher, which has been more beneficial than these two years of homemaking. I appreciate your guidance and friendship to me and I can never thank you enough. I am not a seamstress as you say, because I have no interest whatever in sewing. But foods, homenursing (my favorite) were so helpful. The home nursing has been so beneficial in my work at Sherman Comm. Hospital these 2 years in the Future Nurses club.

I wish for you (and your husband) the best that life and God has to offer. You do deserve every good thing and may God bless you always.

Thanks again for everything,

Patricia McKnight

Dear Mrs Tucker,

I have enjoyed being in your Homemaking Class this year. I have enjoyed getting out of Study Hall to sew and clean-up the Lab. Next year as I leave you school I will take with me the wonderful things that have happened in Homemaking

Love ya,
Julie

Mrs. Tucker,

I've enjoyed being in your class for the last two years. I really hate leaving & I know I will miss Home-making this next year. I can truly say I've learned a lot from your teaching and I am sure I can use both cooking and sewing someday when I get my own home.

Good luck to a wonderful person. I'll miss you all next year.

Sincerely,
Betty

Dear Mrs. Tucker,

You are a favorite teacher of mine. This year you have done wonders for me, and I appreciate every bit of it. You are a marvelous teacher that I will remember for years to come. I would like to say thank you for all the help you have given me in homemaking and degree club.

May God Bless you,
Barbara Smithson

Dear Mrs. Tucker,

This has been a wonderful year in your class; every bit of it. You have proud to be a great teacher. May you have many good classes in the years to come.

Happiness & love,
Joyce Davis

Dear Mrs Tucker,

I've enjoyed being in your 8th period homemaking class, may the good lord grant all of your wishes, and remember when you're smiling the whole world smiles with you.

TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY
"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"

Dear Mrs. Tucker,

I have enjoyed being in your eighth period class this year. You are a wonderful teacher, and I have learned that more than ever this final nine weeks. When a teacher and student are able to work together toward a mutual goal, it is indeed a big accomplishment. I know that this year I have learned more under your guidence than I have in the other two years I studied homemaking. I only wish that my full schedule would permit me to take another year of sewing and cooking with you.

Good luck always and may God bless you forever!

Judy Baker
